Bicycle Rider Gets in the Way of a Streetcar

Mr. F. O. Bradley, the insurance man, of Casto street, met with a serious and unfortunate accident yesterday morning about 10:30 o'clock which will confine him to his bed for some days.

He was riding his bicycle and in crossing the track at Bank street an Eastbound streetcar struck him. Mr. Bradley was badly hurt about the left breast, besides being otherwise bruised, and his machine knocked into kindling wood.

Mr. L. M. Lane happened, along at the time in his buggy, conveyed the injured man to the office of Dr. Davis, and thence to his home in Casto street.

There are different versions as to how the accident occurred and to whom the blame belongs.

River News

Gage 11.1 and rising.
Another Kanawha coal fleet is coming down.
The Virginia is tonight's Pittsburgh packet.
River business all along the line is improving.
The Tacoma will be down today from Charleston.
The Greenwood will be up tonight for Pomeroy and way points.
The rise at Pittsburgh did not pan out as expected and no coal left.

Parties in St. Louis are talking about buying the New South and running her in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade.

Captain John C. Howard, the well known riverman and boat-builder, died a few days ago at his home in Louisville.

The last towboats that had been caught by the low water at down-river ports have arrived in the Pittsburgh harbor. There is between 20,000,000 and 25,000,000 bushels of coal in boats ready for shipment to Southern ports. For months river coal operators have gradually been accumulating their stock, and now everything is ready for a big shipment. There is also much coal loaded in boats in the upper pools of the Monongahela river.

Our Colored Citizens.

With reference to the Plymouth Baptist Church having withdrawn the hand of fellowship from parties, the Church has not given to the public anything regarding it; therefore, we ask that all concerned in the most distant way not to interfere with our affairs until they are properly authorized to do so.

L. D. HENDERSON, Clerk.

A MAYSVILLE CASE.

Many More Like It in Maysville.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Maysville. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cablish's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As I stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and again found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
